Local baseball hall to gain new members

An induction dinner is scheduled for Friday.

The Fort Wayne Baseball Old-timers Association will induct four new members into the Fort Wayne Baseball Hall of Fame on Friday at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 601 Reed Road. The induction dinner starts at 6:30 p.m.

This year's class includes David Beber, Bill McColly, Art Pinnow and Clint Wickensheimer. Imogene Nahrwold will be posthumously awarded the Elmer Wagner Award, and Ben Smith of The Journal Gazette will receive the Bob Parker Memorial Award.

The 1966 Connie Mack League most valuable player, Beber was drafted by the Cleveland Indians in 1967 and played in the minors until 1969, with time out for military service. He continued his playing career in Fort Wayne with the Stan Musial League and also in softball, playing one season with the Fort Wayne Scouts.

McColly played both basketball and baseball at Ball State before signing with the Milwaukee Braves in 1954. He played on pennant-winning teams in 1954 and 1955. He then came to Fort Wayne with the Allen Dairymen and was part of the squad that finished second nationally in semi-pro baseball in 1957.

For 38 years, Pinnow has worked for the Wildcat Baseball Association, the first nine as a site director and the final 29 as league commissioner. He retired in 1991 after 40 years as a teacher and coach.

After starring as a pitcher and catcher at Bishop Luers, Wickensheimer played at Ball State before being drafted by the Los Angeles Dodgers. He played four seasons in the minors, reaching as high as Class AA.

Nahrwold sponsored the Ted's Sales and Service Team for more than 20 years. She passed away in 1980.

Tickets may be purchased at the Wizards' Memorial Stadium office, Smoky's Records and at Burch's Sports Collectibles. They cost $14 and may also be purchased at the door.

Being cut out for the games from the stands

By J.D. Brookhart
For The Advocate

I can remember the first Little League tryout like it was yesterday. It was announced that Newark would have a Little League — organized baseball, uniform sponsors, the real thing! We were excited. Tryouts were at Everett Field. Since I had a five-fingered glove and was not at all adept at fielding grounders or line drives (or flies for that matter), I chose to try out for the outfield position along with 200 other Newark kids with five-fingered gloves.

I can recall we all stood out in the outfield crowded together and a coach hit fly balls to us, all 200 of us. I don't know how many were able to catch a ball in that crowd. I know I didn't. Not that the crowd was any reason I couldn't field a high pop fly. My Earl Averill five-fingered glove may have worked well for Earl, a star with the Cleveland Indians but for some reason — maybe the pocket wasn't worn in — it didn't work for me. I don't think I ever did bat; may have, it wasn't memorable. Suffice it to say, I didn't make the cut that first year of Little League. My friend, Richard Kunninger, made it though and the rest of us thought he was on his way to the major leagues.

Richard was issued a T-shirt and a maroon cap with a white "W" on it — Western Products. I thought he looked great. The next year Jim Amspaugh made the Little League and Richard was issued a flannel uniform for Western Products with gray and maroon letters. He looked just like a real baseball pro.

I never did make a team; not a fault of the league. I just wasn't cut out to be a baseball player; I was cut out to be a baseball fan. I loved to watch a game.

J.D. Brookhart as a child with his Earl Averill five-fingered glove.

The Mound City Little League built two baseball diamonds on 21st Street on either side of the entry way into the Valley Drive In Theater. These were two great little diamonds and I watched many games there. Over the next several years I saw some great Little League players. Names like Granger McKinney, Dave Wright, Ed McCament, John Ridella, Tom Pitcock. These were the days when sponsors included Kress Box, E.T. Rugg, Owens Corning Fiberglas, Best Jewelers, Agonis and Modern Welding. All good teams and a really good league. I can still remember a Granger McKinney home run — something to see.

I was in awe of these players, their uniforms, the umpire, the coaches and the field. It was simply a great place to go on a hot summer evening. Some of those names went on to play Newark High sports. All went on to have a wonderful memory — playing Little League in Newark.

J.D. Brookhart grew up in Newark after moving here in 1946. He now lives in St. Marys, Ohio.

Love
knows no limit
to its endurance
no end
to its trust,
Love
still stands
when all else has fallen
I Corinthians 13:7-8

Amy and Wayne

We have experienced love...
in our parents, our families and friends
and now a new love in each other.
With sincere joy and a firm desire to give this love its fullest expression
we will be joined in marriage on Saturday, the eighteenth of July nineteen hundred and ninety-eight

at one-thirty in the afternoon

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

In Your Charity
Pray for the Repose of the Soul of

Marvin Leugring

Died March 17, 1951

Prayer to Our Lady of Fatima

Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, I adore You profoundly and I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all the tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifferences by which He Himself is offended. And by the infinite merits of His Most Sacred Heart and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of poor sinners.

My Jesus forgive us our sins. Save us from the fires of hell. Lead all souls to Heaven and grant Thy mercy to those who are most in need.

Dear Mrs. Luegring:

I was sure glad to hear from someone who is recearching Issac Newton Davis as there is very few who are. Issac Newton is my wifes g-g-grand father. Her linage is as follows; Isaac Newton, Nancy Jane Davis Spaid, Cora Dell Spaid Snyder, Ora Lewis Snyder and then my wife Barbara Mae Snyder Fribley.

I have the book on the Dukes-Davis that I recieved from Doris Campell Lunsford and after recieving your letter I was able to trace you and your lineage. Your Lewis Davis and my wifes Nancy Jane Davis were brother and sister. There is a lady here in Leesburg that is from their sister Mary who married Robert Brundige.

As to the burial place of Isaac Newton I have also visited the Cemetery at Kieferville, Ohio and could not find a tombstone. The Cemetery there that I visited was at the north side of Kieferville and on the east side of the road. I also talked to some people there who never heard of the Woodlawn Cemetery. I also contacted the Putnam County Historical and Geanolgy Society and they never heard of Woodlawn Cemetery either. The lady from Leesburg said he was buried in the BlueCreek Cemetery near Havilan and I checked that Cemetery and found only one Davis buried there.

Issac Newton was a very wealthy farmer as by the I850 census he owned $2500 real estate, I860 he owned I0,000 real estate and $I600 personal, I870 he owned 20,000 real estate and $3000 personal and in those days this was a lot of money. He owned I500 acres in Hancock County when he was farming before he retired. In the I900 census he was living with Austin Lane his youngest son near Kieferville. There fore I can't figure out with all of his wealth why there was no tombstone put on his grave. I have a copy of Isaac Newtons death certificate and it states he died at Kieferville. Your letter stated his body was taken to Contintial by train. Since Contintial is only 3 miles west of Kieferville why was this done? Did he die somewhere else or is buried some place other than Kieferville.

I have visited the Dukes Cemetery and photographed Mary Powell and Lydia Davis tombstones. I found out one thing and that is that the Dukes were very wealthy by their tombstones (monuments) that were on ther graves. I also took photos of Joseph and Nancy Blackburns tombstones in the Clymer Cemetery north of Mt. Cory Ohio. For very old stones they are in excellant shape.

I am enclosing Family Group sheets of Barbaras linage and Individual Analysis of Isaac Newton and Martha Blachburn Davis. They give an excellant description of both. I recieved these 3 years ago from my wifes cousin who got them from Rista Spaids grandson in St. Louis, Mo.. More of this should of been done on all of our ancestors. Thank you very much for the obituary of Martha Davis as gives me a little history on her. If you have any other history on the Davis family I would gladly pay for the copy fees.

As to the George Eckert family of Marshall County Barbara back in the fortys she went to the same church with them, but did not know they were related. Barbara knew the Cora who was the wife of Floyd Eckert and also their children.

I hope to hear again from you on the Davis line.

Sincerely, Jno E. Frible

MERRY CHRISTMAS from Our House to Yours!

Family News:

Dear Lorna & Ken & family,

We were glad to hear from you and hear about the family. You must be proud of them.

I've been working on the Genealogy quite a bit this last year, going thru Census Records, etc. But that Sam Davis sure lost himself when he went to the Middle States. Personally I think he ended up in Virginia in the same area as the Duke's and that his son Ishmael married Lydia Dukes there or else followed the Duke's to Ohio - and that he was considerably older than she. I wrote to Franklin County for death and marriage certificates hoping I could get information there but was too long ago.

The only thing I found was an 1830 Federal Census of Madison twp, Franklin Co., Page 80; this lists "Isaac Davis, between 60 + 70 years of age; 1 female between 40 and 50 years of age. Only 2 in the household."

This would make Isaac be born in 1765. Could he be Samuel's son and also the father of Ishmael.

There is all kinds of possibilities but this last one really makes sense.

Thanks for the info on the Duke's. Fascinating! Love Glenn + Edna

There's no June swoon on airwaves

It's June, and the boys of summer are on the air.

They are skating around up there on my TV, Devils and Flyers, bundled up in big pads and forearm-length jerseys and bulky knit socks. Martin Brodeur is clearing the puck around the net. Scott Stephens is picking it up along the boards. Eric Lindros is lurking somewhere, a foothill on skates.

It's June.

Across the room, the window is open, and warm air and street sounds spill into the room. The whack-whack of a basketball as a kid trudges home. The distant hum of a lawn mower. The booming vibration of a nuclear car stereo.

It's June.

In my living room, crashed out on the couch, I thumb the remote, considering the options.

A flick of my finger, and here are

Northrop grad Eric Wedge (Boston Red Sox Triple-A at Pawtucket) is batting .211 with 23 hits, 16 RBI and six home runs.

New Haven grad Dave Doster (Philadelphia Phillies Double-A at Reading) is leading the team in RBI with 33 and is tied for team lead in home runs with eight. He is batting .270, with 60 hits, 33 runs and 16 doubles.

Harding grad Ray Moon had three hits Saturday in an exhibition game for the North Dakota Rattlers. The Rattlers are part of the newly formed Prairie League (Independent League).

Rattlers manager Rich Bristow said he expects more success from Moon.

"He's been a very bright spot in our lineup," Bristow said. "I think he's going to do an outstanding job for us."

East Noble grad Ben VanRyn (California Angels Triple—A at Vancouver) is 1-0 with a 1.46 ERA. VanRyn has given up 11 hits and two runs in 12 innings. He's struck out seven and walked three.

Ora M. Davis, longtime teacher

Ora M. Davis, 88, died Friday in Towne House Health Center.

Born in Hancock County, he had retired as a teacher at South Side High School, where he taught 41 years, the longest tenure in the history of the school. He taught Latin and mathematics and served 25 years as athletic director and 15 years as a guidance counselor. He was a charter member of the South Side Hall of Fame and a member of the Exchange Club and First Baptist Church.

Surviving are his wife, Alice; two sons, Phillip E. Davis of Houston and George Robert Davis of Fort Wayne; a daughter, Becky Brown of Fort Wayne; a sister, June Pett of Bluffton; and five grandchildren.

Memorial services are 2 p.m. Sunday at Towne House Chapel, 2209 St. Joe Center Road. There is no calling. Burial will be in Lindenwood Cemetery. Arrangements are by D.O. McComb & Sons Lakeside Park Funeral Home, 1140 Lake Ave.

Preferred memorials are gifts to First Baptist Church, South Wayne Baptist Church or Towne House.

Lorna + Ken,

Good to hear from you Kids & grand kids do grow up fast. I know all about that. Where do the years go?

We are all okay up here in the cold. We only got a couple inches of snow but it stays and stays. Got my outside lights up the day before the cold hit so I was lucky.

What is the cousin's name that you found — and how related? I have found several cousins in Californi by using my computer. Sure is interesting.

Journal - Saturday, November 19, 1898

Guinan, Francis - Word has been received of the death of one of the oldest and best known farmers of Madison Township, who passed to the great beyond, Tuesday, succumbing to the infirmities attendant upon old age. He was 84. He was a native of Switzerland. He came to this country when still a young man and was a resident of Allen County for over 30 years. He leaves the widow and 9 children, 4 daughters and 5 sons. He was laid to rest in the Catholic Cemetry, Monroeville.

In the Early Marriages of Allen County:

Frank Guenin and Hortence Jeanmangin - September 8, 1885 they were married by John Hoss.

Edward Guenin and Mary Wagner - September 27, 1898 they were married by L. R. Poquet.
